properties*

(Macao, Feb. 20, 2015) – Sands China Ltd. rang in the Year of the Goat Friday with traditional ceremonies and rituals held across its properties. The second day of the Chinese New Year saw Sands China executives gather to participate in what has become an annual tradition for the company.

Sands[®] Macao, The Venetian[®] Macao and Sands[®] Cotai Central each greeted the Year of the Goat in jubilant style with a worship ritual, followed by an eye-dotting ceremony and a traditional lion dance performance. Sands China executives attending the ceremonies also took the time to visit the team member dining areas at the three properties, distributing lucky goat plush toys and red packets to team members and hosting rounds of lucky draws. Adding to the festive atmosphere was a lantern riddle challenge, in which team members tried to guess the answers to mysterious riddles written on lanterns. The day's festivities concluded with a roasted pig cutting ceremony and a group photo; it was a joyous occasion, with MOP 130,000 worth of lucky prizes given away.

“Our team members are the most essential assets of our company, and we value their culture and heritage greatly,” said Edward Tracy, President and Chief Executive Officer of Sands China Ltd. “Chinese New Year is the most important festival in the Chinese calendar and we’re happy to celebrate this special occasion with them. This is a tradition we hope to carry on for many years to come.”

With these auspicious festivities, Sands China Ltd. hopes to bring good luck and great blessings to its properties and Macao for the coming year.
